McLean Doctor's Book Signing Event

Monday, March 17, 2008, McLean, Virginia – The TaBois–Bonhomme Galerie d'Art held its premiere Book Signing Event for McLean resident and first-time author R. A. Comunale, M.D., at its gallery located in the Regency at McLean, 1800 Old Meadow Road, Suite 113, near Tysons Corner.

The Book Signing Event for Dr. Comunale's first novel, Requiem for the Bone Man, was held on Saturday and Sunday, March 15 -16, 2008, from 2 p.m. – 5 p.m., and it was well attended. Comunale read passages from his as yet unpublished fourth book on both days, readings that captivated the audience. Among the listeners was William F. Gavin, an author in his own right, whose comments appear on the back cover of Comunale's book. He wrote:

“Requiem for the Bone Man is a moving compelling first novel, told with the assurance and skill of a born story-teller. It is also a meditation on the art of healing, as seen in the adventures of its unforgettable central character, Dr. Robert Galen. From his youth as a street-smart son of immigrants, to his career as a gifted doctor, Galen is tough-minded yet compassionate. Above all, he is deeply human, willing to risk the pain of loss and failure that is inevitably comes to those with an unshakable commitment to a vocation and to friends and loved ones.”

Books are available for sale at the gallery and on its website, www.catabois.com.

Gallery hours are by appointment while it is currently in between exhibitions, two of which are tentatively scheduled for mid-July and early November this year. However, still on display are some paintings by Thomas Xenakis from his exhibition, L'Or (Gold) Xenakis, a few pieces by woodworker Paul Seery, and artwork in charcoal, oils, and photography by Cecelia TaBois, the gallery's curator and owner. Current information is posted on the gallery's website: www.ctabois.com.
