OUR LEADERSHIP

CECELIA A. TABOIS, CPA, MBA, JD

After a rewarding career in the private sector, Ms. TaBois began consulting with seasoned professionals, some of whom are now advisors and consultants of TaBois Financial and Business Solutions, LLC (TaBoisFABS). She is a trusted advisor to individuals and business clients.

Ms. TaBois brings a wealth of experience in the public and private sectors to this firm: financial and forensic accounting, audit, compliance (regulatory and Sarbanes-Oxley), government contracting, risk management, taxation, process re-engineering, systems development & implementation; and has assisted startup businesses seeking venture capital. Her 23 years of corporate experience at ExxonMobil (Mobil Oil) included external reporting (annual reports, SEC filings, etc.), mergers & acquisitions, accounting research, financial accounting, tax planning & reporting, as well as financial systems development & implementation.

As an Adjunct Professor at the Bush School of Business, The Catholic University of America, Ms. TaBois lectured students pursuing the CPA course of study in: Legal Aspects of Accounting, Auditing & Finance, Cost Accounting, and Taxation.

She holds a J.D. from The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, is licensed to practice in the Commonwealth of Virginia; M.B.A. from Pace University in Management Sciences (Statistics and Operations Research), and B.S. in Accounting from Hunter College, City University of New York.

She is a member of the American Bar Association, Virginia State Bar, Virginia Society of CPAs, Financial Executive Network, and is actively engaged in a variety of civic and community organizations supporting the arts.
